Victims of Domestic Violence Homicide to be Remembered

Victims who lost their lives due to deadly domestic violence incidents will be remembered at a ceremony hosted by the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department and the Southern Nevada Domestic Violence Task Force on Thursday, October 1, 2015.

Undersheriff Kevin McMahon and Victim Advocate Supervisor Elynne Greene will officiate at the ceremony. The names of nineteen people lost to deadly domestic violence incidents between July 1, 2014 and June 30, 2015 will be added to a plaque.

Following the reading of the name and age of each victim, a rose will be placed in a vase to honor the victim's life. The plaque will join other plaques which contain the names of over 300 victims who have lost their lives to domestic violence within the last thirteen years.

This ceremony will take place at 10 a.m. in the first floor of building B in the LVMPD Headquarters Campus located at 400 South Martin L. King Boulevard.

All media outlets are invited to attend.
